VAN HORN 1

1. Lucas Van Horn, founder of the Van Horn Family of Lot 8, was
bp. Feb. 17, 1723 at Hackensack, son of Cornelius Van Horn and Jemima Demorest. He married Margrietje Blaauvelt, b. Aug 19, bp. Sept. 12, 1736 at Tappan, dau. of Johannes G. Blaauvelt and Maritje Flierboom (#11), from Lot 5. Through his mother, whose first husband was Samuel Helling (Helm), Lucas was a half-brother of Theunis Helm, ~~from Lot 6~~, and his brothers from Lot 6; and a cousin of Annetje Demorest, wife of Nicholas Peterson (#11); and of Jacobus Peek, Junior, and his brothers, all of whom were of pro-British sympathies when the Revolutionary War came. This was no doubt one of the reasons why the Van Horn family became divided, two sons remaining on the Patriot side, and two joining the British. He was also cousin of Margarita Van Horn, wife of Reynier Flierboom (#16);
of Jannetje Van Horn, wife of Arie Blaauvelt, all from Lot #5;
and of Rachel Van Horn, wife of Peter Bogert from Lot 3.
Lucas Van Horn purchased at an unknown date prior to 1769 from Barent Cole or another intermediary owner, about 75 acres in Lot 8, part of the northwest corner; part of the most southeasterly end of the lot between the Hackensack River and Pascaek Brook; plus a woodlot of 4 acres or more lying between. He made his home on the southerly portion in a small frame house which formerly stood on the east side of Bogert's Mill Road, north of the Pascaek Brook. He d. prior to May 1773, leaving a will dated Sept. 11, 1769, but which was not proved until Aug. 31, 1775 and filed at Trenton. By that time his widow had married, 2nd., Peter Quackenbush, her husband's nephew, b. July 14, bp. July 28, 1745 at Tappan, son of Abraham

Quackenbush and Susannah Helm. They had a daughter Susannah, b. June 15, bp July 7, 1776 at Paramus. He was a Loyalist of some activity during the Revolutionary War, but remained in the area afterward.

The will of Lucas Van Horn left his wife the whole estate during her widowhood, and a cow and other goods in the event she remarried. The estate was then to be divided by the four sons, equally, who were ordered to pay to their sister Marietje, a legacy of 40 pounds. The Van Horn land of 75 acres was taxed under the name of the step-father in Sept. 1779, through 1780, December. It was subsequently taxed under the names of Johannes and Daniel who remained in possession, until the portions of the other two brothers were sold. Margaret Van Horn and her second husband subsequently lived at Old Yappan where he was taxed for 5 acres and a cow in 1802. This land was probably a part of the farm of Jacobus Flierboom (#18), divided among his heirs after his death, and she apparently owned this when she d. Apr. 18, 1805. The record of her death appears in the "Book of the Dead" of the Schraalenburgh (Dumont) Church, as "Margriete Blaauvelt, huysvrouw van Pieter Quakenbos, overleden Apr. 18, begraven Apr. 20, 1805." Although no estate was recorded, a settlement was made among the heirs between the years 1811 and 1816, after negotiations with those in Canada, since they were not willing to apply to the Orphan's Court. Recorded evidence of the sale of the Old Yappan land has not been found.

girls in the event she remained, the estate was then to be divided by the four sons, equally, who were entitled to pay to their sister Mary, a legacy of $10,000 the Van Horn land of 50 acres was taken with the of the estate, to be paid to the 11th, through 1880, December
it was subsequently found under the name of Johnson and Daniel who remained in possession, while the portion of the other two daughters were sold. They and Van Horn and her second husband subsequently lived at Old Tappan where he was taxed for 5 acres and a town in 1802. This land was probably a part of the former of Jacobus F. Johnson (1718), divided among his three after his death, and the apparently owned this with the
b. Apr. 18, 1802. The record of the death appears in the "Book of the State" of the Netherlands (Gronow) which is "Huygen's Almanack, Huygen van Fries & Willebrordus" overhead Apr. 18, 1802, although no estate was recorded, a settlement was made among the three children the year 1811 and 1812, after negotiations with them in Canada, since they were not willing to apply to the Dutch Court to establish evidence of the sale of the Tappan land and not to pay.

Children (Huygen's Almanack)

1. Cornelius, b. about 1758
2. Johannes; b. Feb. 17, 1760, at Friesland.

4. Daniel, b. Oct. 25, 1762, at Paramus.
  5. Gerrit, b. Apr. 9, b. May 1, 1766 at Paramus.
  6. Marrietje, b. July 17, b. July 30, 1769 at Tappan.
2. Cornelius, b. about 1758 was a loyalist in the Revolutionary War and joined the British. An Inquisition was found against him and judgment subsequently entered Jan., 1778, at the Court held at Pompton. The sale of his estate was advertised for Apr. 20, 1779, and his share of his father's land was probably sold at that time, or later. Subsequent judgments were entered in Jan., 1780, at Paramus. At the evacuation he removed to Canada with his youngest brother Gerrit, settling in Ontario. In 1811, a few years after the death of their mother, he and his brother executed a power of attorney to John Demarest of Old Hook, dated March 6, 1811, at Adolphustown, Seneca County, Midland District in "Upper Canada." He d. prior to Aug. 20, 1816, when Peter Vallean signed a receipt for the sum of $104 "in behalf of Gerrit Van Horn and the Executors of Cornelius Van Horn" for their share of a lot of land formerly belonging to their mother. His descendants have not been traced.
5. Gerrit b. Apr. 9, 1766, apparently left with his brother Cornelius when the Revolutionary War began and went to Canada at the evacuation in 1783. He was not of age until 1787 and too young to have taken any part in the war. His share of the family land in lot 8 was not sold, therefore, until 1787 and probably later, due to the distance involved and the problem of communication. He was granted a tract of 100 acres, being one-half of lot 2, Concession 4, Thurlow Township, District of Mecklenburgh, Ontario, on March 16, 1789. His quarter share of the land in lot 8 was apparently taken from the southerly part, along the Pascauk Brook in what is now Harrington Park, and sold to Apeke Van Saen, probably in 1740. In July 1791 and subsequent years, Van Saen was taxed for 16 acres and cattle, covering the homestead tract of 12 acres and a wood lot of 4 acres a short distance to the north. He built a frame house of two stories, and a barn, at the time of the purchase. These stood west of Bogert's Mill Road in the immediate vicinity of what is now #12 Taylor Drive, and were demolished in the 1950's. In 1811, Garret was living in the Township of Sophiasburg, Prince Edward County, Ontario, when he gave the Power of Attorney to John Demarest of Old Hook, to facilitate the settlement of his mother's estate. His descendants have not been traced.

was apparently taken from the mountain front, along the Pawnee Creek in what is now Hawthorne Park, and used to build Van Horn, probably in 1840. In 1841 and subsequent years, Van Horn was kept for 10 years and called, covering the mountain front of 12 acres and a wood lot of 10 acres and a water lot of 10 acres.
The first house of two stories, and a barn, at the time of the foundation, then stood west of the present site of the mountain vicinity of what is now the 2nd Street, and was demolished in the 1850's. In 1861, Van Horn was living in the township of Pawnee, and County, Nebraska, where he gave the town of Van Horn, to facilitate the settlement of the mountain estate. His descendants have not been traced.

VAN HORN

This answer has appeared in many publications but cannot be correct.

Abraham Van Horn and wife, Maria Provost, had three children
according to V.R. of N.Y.

1. Cornelius 16 Oct 1706

2. Abraham b. 8 Mar 1713 d 7

3. Abraham 11 Jan 1719.

Cornelius Van Horn of New Jersey died 1744, age 49, see Chambers' Early Germans of New Jersey (p. 1694); also the will of Thomas Code, of Freehold, N.J., dated 1722, named dau.
Catherine, wife of Cornelius Van Horn; this Catherine is known to have been the first wife of Cornelius of Whitehouse. If he was b. 1706, as stated in above quoted answer, he would have been only 16 when married and with a son.

Abraham, brother of Cornelius, made his will in Hunterdon Co., N.J., 1758; he mentioned his wife and seven children. Two of these children then married, and one of them with 4 children.

If he were the Abraham of paragraph (1) b. 1719, he would have been only 12 years old when his so-called son Abraham was born in 1731.

There are other facts which do not fit.

Were Cornelius and Abraham of Hunterdon Co., N.J., sons of Genet of New Amsterdam

VAN HORN

W. P. C. is correct in stating the earlier answer which has appeared in many publications, is incorrect.

Cornelius and Abraham Van Horn were not sons of Abraham and Maria (Prevost) Van Horn, as has been printed; they were not even of that line

Matthens Cornelissen came to America from the little town in Holland; married Sophia, daughter of Adam Brower;
she was his second wife.

Children were:

1. Cornelius, born in Brooklyn and bapt. there 4 May, 1695;
sponsors were Thomas Lawrence and Elizabeth Thomas.
2. Abraham born 1699, whose bap. record I do not find.

These sons took the name of Van Horn as was the usual Dutch custom.

I'm starving! Will you please get off YOUR diet?

START THE BUSY DAY WITH MILK.

Milk stands at the top of its class in purity and goodness. See that your school age children get plenty of it. Three glasses a day health authorities say, good for grown-ups too.

Know what, waiter?
My billfold's in my other pants!

For these cool fall days, serve plenty of hot chocolate. Try a glass for breakfast. It's good and it touches the spot.
IT'S GOOD AND GOOD FOR YOU.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of a solution of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters  $\alpha$  and  $\beta$ . It is shown that the system has a solution for arbitrary values of the parameters  $\alpha$  and  $\beta$  if and only if the condition  $\alpha + \beta = 1$  is satisfied.
